Act Like the Word Is True

by Mark Brazee

Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son.

Colossians 1:12, 13

Why do people get sick? Well, we know why people in the world get sick: Their father, the devil, gives sickness to them. But what about Christians? Our Father God doesn't have any sickness to give to us, and we don't have to take it from the devil anymore. We've been delivered from darkness. But because of a lack of knowledge, Christians often don't realize sickness comes from the devil and don't resist symptoms when they show up. Or they may think God has some purpose in the sickness so they keep it. When these Christians start feeling symptoms, they just say in resignation, "I guess I'm sick." They don't know the enemy is trying to cause them problems and keep them from obeying God. They're ignorant of the devil's efforts to hinder them from fulfilling the Great Commission. Therefore, they don't resist the devil. When symptoms come, they "sign for the package" and get sick. Amazingly enough, another major reason many Christians are sick is that they haven't obeyed James 4:7: "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you." If you're going to live in divine health as God intended, you must know sickness comes from the devil. When symptoms come, resist them in Jesus' name. Then act like God's Word is true—because it is.

Confession: I'm delivered from the power of darkness. I submit to God and resist the devil, and the devil has to go and take his symptoms with him.

A big thank you to Pastor Mark Brazee for allowing us to reprint this article. Mark and I graduated from Rhema together in 1975. He is a man of integrity and a man of the Word. He and his wife, Janet, pastor World Outreach Church in Tulsa and are the founders of Domata School of Ministry. Kathleen and I are blessed to call them our friends.

Our dear friend and AFCM Missionary, Emma Hutchinson, entered into heaven on May 18, 2013.

We are honored to have known this incredible woman of God—a true missionary with an amazing heart. We are pleased to share this song with you, written by her friend, Cheryl Vierkant. It speaks so eloquently of Emma's heart and love for the people God called her to.

Emma Hutchinson

"Emma was a dear friend and she was always an encourager to me. She loved the songs that the Lord gives me, and a few years ago she took my hand and asked me to pray and ask God to give me a song for her; because she knew that I understood her heart for Africa." — Cheryl Vierkant

Mother to Africa

By Cheryl Vierkant

The Lord sought a faithful soul
A strong heart willing to go
And carry a torch
To a distant land

Emma, you heard the Call
You were willing to go
And give your all
For His people

A Mother's heart and embrace
You touched them with His love and grace
And in your voice they could hear
The beat of your Father's heart
"Let the Children Come"

Mother to Africa
With a heart filled with love
And a fire in your soul
You answered "Yes, Lord"
I will go
